DEATH OF A PROMI-NENT MINISTER.

Eld. J. W. McGarvey, Jr., Drops Dead at Dryesburg, Tennessee.

FORMER PASTOR OF THE CHURCH HERE

This entire town was shocked last Wednesday afternoon when a dispatch reached Dr. U. L. Taylor, stating that his son-in.law Eld. J. W. McGarvey, Jr., had dropped dead at Dryesburg. Tenn', where he was engaged in evangelistic meetings. The deceased was on the streets and en route to dinner when he met with a stroke of apoplexy, ending in sudden death.

Eld. McGarvey, was born and reared in Lexington, and was a son of Eld. J. W. McGarvey, Sr., principal of the Bible College, that city. He was 53 years old

When quite a young man the deceased came to this town as a teacher in C. C College, and later he became the principal of the school, and was here several years, during which time he made many warm, personal friends. During the first year of his stay in Columbia he was happily married to Miss Fannie B. Taylor, an accomplished daughter of Dr. U. L. Taylor, and some years after their marriage Mr. McGarvey became the pastor of the Church here.

After he left Columbia he taught at Lexington University, and was also principal of a college at Richmond, Ky., for several years. He also taught and preached at other points in Kentucky. For the last two or three years he was evangelizing in the South.

The deceased was a polished gentleman and his death brought sorrrow to many homes in Kentucky and other States.

his daughter, Miss Ray, and son, Earl, the children being grown.

The funeral services were held at Lexington, Ky., Thursday afternoon, Dr. U. L. Taylor, father-in-law of the deceased, being in attendance.

This community extends its sympathy to the bereaved wife, children and all other relatives.

To the Baptists.

Doubtless many are interested in the where they belong, upon the earth. building of a new Baptist Church in Columbia, who have never indicated it useful? in a substantial way, and that many intend to do so later on. If there are any who desire to give aid we can only say that now is the time to do it. The Committee appointed to solicit funds have tried to see every member, and with few exceptions have succeeded, but still we are short several hundred dollars. The time granted us to secure the amount necessary has nearly expired. Only about twelve more days remain in which to secure the eight thousand dollars, and if this is not done our fond desires must fail. We have gone to many who have only said, "I will see you later," or I will let you know in a few days." Now in justice to the committee, in justice to the cause, why shoule you hesitate longer? Every member of the committee is a busy man, every one has given liberally, and has sought to give every member of the church an opportunity to give. Only a few hundred dol ars are needed to secure the building, but it fails if it is not secured within a few days. If you are able to contribute, and want a modern house of worship, or if you want to increase your subscription, call on some member of the committee at your earliest hour. There is no time to lose if the amount necessary is secured.

MODERN WOODMAN BANQUET.

Fittingly Celebrate the First Anniversary of the Organization of Their Local Camp.

That the local camp of Modern Woodmen is becoming more and more a fact. or in Columbia's progressive strides for larger and better things, must be apparent to the citizen not purblind with a prejudice. To unite together so large a number of capable, sturdy men, all in the very prime of life, in any laudable undertaking is an achievment worthy of mention. But when that purpose is the protection of loved ones, the promotion of brotherhood and the explicit teachings of principles for society's betterment, it should command our highest admiration The order's chief charm is that it appeals alike to all worthy classes of individuals; and within its wholsome environments all of its members breathe the same atmosphere of unrestrained freedom,

The lessons taught in the society's initiatory symbolism are of a high moral chaaracter and when fully received and practiced serve to enoble citizenship. However, it is not the purpose of this article to write at length of the virtues of this well known fraternal order, rather it is the purpose to speak of the late banquet, given at one of Columbia's frincipal hostlery on Friday evening, April the 7th. This event was given in recognition of the first anniversary of the local camp, and, according to those present, a great success was scored. At an early hour of the evening each

'neighbor' accompanied by wife, sister or sweetheart (there were a few utterly bereft of such comforts) assembled in the Woodmen Forest. Here the time was most pleasantly passed in explaining the mysteries, in small talk, n conferring "side degrees" and an exhibition drill by the Foresters. It was 9:30 i'clock when a messenger announced that supper was ready, when an imprompture line was formed that moved with military prompiness, if not with military precision, to the hotel that was some two blocks distant. The briliantly lighted and decorated dining hall, with its invitingly filled tables, of determination, and lastly a scene of prespiration. The Chief Forester commultitude and kept up an incessant rain of oratory, and occasional lightening flash of repartee and at other times thunders of applause. Two hours soon sped by for the seventy or eighty banand a domine neighbor delivered the benediction, "Good nights" followed and there went into history one of the events ever enacted in Columbia's fraternal world. All honor to those havcessful entertainment. As is characteristic of Modern Woodmen, all was planned in good taste and, admitedly done to a finish. X X X

Fifty Years Without Shaving.

Button Smith, one of the bestknown characters of Petersburg, had his first shave and hair cut in fifty years to day and when he left the barber and went home it was an hour before his aged wife would believe that he was her husband.

He was eighty-five years old a few days ago and his last shave and hair cut were before the presidential election in 1855.

'Uncle Button' as he has been known for a generation, was an original Republican, and in 1854 made a vow not to shave or have his hair cut for fifty years if his party did not win in the ensuing election, and he religiously kept his pledge.

His hair reached nearly to the ground and his beard was below his waist, and both perfectly white giving him a strange appearance and making many believe he was deranged.

When the barber got through shaving and cutting his hair that which was taken off nearly filled would be greatly curtailed. Hands greatly misses his beard and he is sorry now that he submited to the barber. He looks forty years younger so great is the transformation by being relieved of the heavy white beard and enormous growth of hair.-Indianapolis

By Evangeline Booth.

Easter ought to mean for New York the birth of a new hope of such a potential character as to carry with it salvation for both worlds. The Christ-man in ineffa ble tenderness spreds his nailpierced hand in blessing upon the heads and hearts of all who desire it And who does not desire it in this fevered, hustling, bust ling, crowding, crushing twentieth century? Whose touch is so cooling and tender as his? Whose Glensfork, Creelsboro, May 13 love is so strong and available? Whose balm so healing? Whose pity so real? Whose support so constant? Whose character so u ichangeable?

To me it is so beautiful that the anniversary of the Saviour's resurection occurs at that wonderful period of the year when nature works her annual miracle of Mannsville, Wesley chapel: bringing life out of death, of regenerating the long, dark night Campbellsville station, May 28 of winter and crowning it with the divine dress of the radiant Casey Creek, Pellyton, June 3 springtide. Nature's book of purling brook birdling's carol, hum of bee, heavenly tint of bud and blossom and the myriad voices of fen and forest that tell of springtide's rejuvenation is one to be studied by all men and can only lead to one source-the God of nature himself. It is a living The District conference will be Christ we worship and serve. He have dominion over us.

presented with two fine hats, each by a different hatmaker, pills? neither knowing that the other had made such a contribution. In the course of events they called upon the president, and it so happened that both called at the same time. When both found themselves in the presence of the executive they asked how he liked the hats they had sent him and taking advantage of the opportuniy of securing a statement of superiotiy of one or the other make, the president was asked to state his preference. To many men such a question would be very embarrassing, but to Lincoln not at all. He took the hats, one in each hand, and then replied gravely, but with a mischievous twinkle in his keen eyes: "Gentleman, your hats do surpass each other!"

THE ADAIR COUNTY NEWS

Published Every Wednesday - - BYaTHE - -

Adair County News Company

AS. S. HARRIS

Democratic newspaper devoted to the in terest of the City of Columbia and the people Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Post-office as see ond class mail matter.

WED. APRIL. 12, 1911

The News has called attention to the importance of a Democratic platform, to be made before the primary, and in so doing has expressed the sentiment and judgment of the entire voting strength of the party in this section. Throughout the state as represented by the papers that reach this office, a similar appeal to the committee has been made, but to no use except the feeble intimations that a platform will be made after the pri mary. So far as we are personally concerned it is "immaterial and in fact should not disturbed or disgruntle any true Democrat, but if it is the purpse of the party managers to invite outside shortly enter the race for Govervoters to joing in, then it seems that a declaration, clear and to, the point, should be made before in different parts of the state, our candidates are named. In fact we believe in putting candi- is thought by my friends that dates on a platform rather than this part of the state should putting a platform on candidates have a candidate and that I am but regardless of "before or in a position to poll the largest after taking" the Democrats of vote of any yet mentioned. If I this section? will be found on the should be the nominee I shall firing line when the battle is puiled off in November.

The News is not now, nor has it at other times sought to push its preference for nominations for the various State offices except its home candidate, Mr. Garnett. It does not know who would make the best officials or who would make the strongest race, but feels that no mistakes will be made in the selection for a good man for every position. As to Mr. Garnett it has an abiding faith that our party could not select a more competent man nor one who would live closer to official duty when elected. It also knows that he stands with the sentiment of the great common people and that they will stand by him. He will get the heaviest vote in this section of the State of any man that has ever offered for such an important position. To outside Democrats we can only say, name the ticket with Garnett for Attorney General and it will be all right. the state.

Hon. James Garnett, of Columbia, was in Hodgenville last week feeling the pulse of the dear people. Mr. Garnett is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General. The Herald following an old custom, has not declared for any man for the nomination for any office, but we can say most emphatically that "Jim" Garnett looks good, is good and will be good senough for The Herald if the Democracy of Kentucky, in its "mechanism," usees fit to nominate him. He's clean, conservative, sensible— a fine lawer, and would give the State the best service in the Attorney General's office. He would give strength to a ticket that will need strength, and The Herald respectfully, with bowed head, reverently recommends the Hon. James Garnett, of Columbia, Ky., to all of the Democratic voters of Kentucky, to a part of them, or to the gentlemen who make slates and put 'em over .-- Hodgenville Herald.

IS CONSIDERING.

I have not fully made up my mind, but think I will very nor. I have recieved many letters from prominent Republicans urging me to enter the race. I make a thorough canvass of the State and land a victory in November. Geo. Nell.

The good roads meeting, held at Elizabethtowu last Saturday was a great success. There were over six hundred delegates present from counties through which the old Louisville and Nashville pike passes. This road is greatly out of repair at this time, and an effort will be made to build it in one day. August the 15th was the day practically agreed upon for the work.

The little bickerings, the dark paintings of disappointed Democrats, in their failure to follow their ideal for Governor, are fast disappearing and hope and determination to win next November rapidly gaining strength.

The contest for the Democratic nomination for Governor is now a proposition between two good men either of which is worthy of her brothers. We are glad to every true Democrats support in Raven Bird is a beautiful mahogany bay full hands high, five years, he has the best of eyes feet and legs, a beautiful head and neck, a very heavy well set tail, which he at all times carries to perfection. He possesses extreme speed, style and action, and the most perfect disposition of any stallion I have ever seen or handled. He has fine distinct gaits, and goes them all in a most attractive manner. You will note from his breeding that he has for his sire the famous old Red Bird, who has perhaps sired as many high class show, and sale horses as any stallion in Kentucky, and traces on his dam's side to Cabell's Lexington, conceeded by all hosemen to be one of the greatest sires that ever lived. Raven Bird is one of Red Bird's greatest sons, and has proven himself an excellent breeder, and we have every reason to believe that, if he is given an opportunity he will make a reputation equal to that of his worthy sire. The fire alarm was turned on in our city last Tuesday aftermoon about sunset, and the news was at once heared that Mr. Robert O. Keltners house was on fire. The bucket brigade was at the place on time prepared for any emergency, and Mr. John Morrison of Columbia, mounted the two story building to the top at once and found it was only the soot burning out of the flue, and the crevices in the flue let the smoke out and the appearance of the smoke coming through the shingles of the building looked very much like the top of the house was all on fire. Glad to say we were all scared worse than hurt.

Jordan Peacock.

This noted Saddle Stallion will make the present season at Gradyville, Ky., and will serve mares at the low price of $15.00 to insure a mare with foal. Jordan is in fine shape, looks like a colt. He is so well known that he needs no introduction to the public. He is known from the Pacific to the Atlantic Ocean. Jordan has sired from 50 to 100 colts every year for 14 years, and most all of them have been sold from weanlings to 4year-olds at from $100 to $2,000. There has been a goodly number of them sold from 500 to $1,000. There has been over One Hundred Thousand Dollars paid to the people of Adair and joining counties for this horse's colts.

I will also stand NOBLE PEACOCK, a son of Jordan Peacock, on the same terms as Jordan Peacock NOBLE is a very fine young horse. He was shown in two rings at the Columbia Fair, last year and won each time. There were 8 entries in one ring and Noble won the blue tie. His first dam was by Artist Jewel, 2nd dam by Cromwell Denmark, 3rd dam by Artist 75. From the above breeding you will see there is no better bred one living than NOBLE PEACOCK.

I will also stand 2 fine Jacks, HIGHWAY and BLACK DIAMOND at $10.00 to insure a mare with foal. Highway's colt won the blue at the Columbia Fair last year, and several of them sold for $100 at weaning time. These are the best Jacks that I have ever seen in Adior County.

BLACK DIAMOND is under 3 years old. Every one that has looked at him say that he is the best one they have ever seen.

Money due in all cases when the mare is traded or moved from the neighborhood. (Plug mares will not be bred to this stock.)

Feed at 25 cents per day or pasture after April 20th at 50 cents per week.

Respectfully, W. L. Grady.

ARWED

This fine Coach Horse will make the season of 1911 at J. C. Browning's barn, near Milltown, and will be permitted to serve mares at the low sum of $10.00 to insure a living colt. ARWED is a fine breeder, and has some of the best colts in Adair County. When a mare is known to be in foal and is traded or sold, the season must be paid.

JACK CHINN

as fine a Jack as there is in this section, will make the season at same place and will serve mares at $6.00 to insure a living colt. He is well known as a breeder and needs no boosting.
